Once upon a time there was a mama bear that lived near downtown Hendersonville and her name was Peppermint. It was getting close to Christmas and Peppermint needed help with the decorating, to make things festive for her family during the holidays. She thought it was time for her cubs to spread their wings, so she sent them out on their own to find a Christmas tree. Peppermint wanted the gang to be home before dark, so she told them to be back in time for dinner. The boys went on a hunt for the perfect tree, while the girls went shopping for silver bell ornaments. The youngsters got so wrapped up in all of the excitement, that they lost all track of time.

In the meantime, Peppermint was home pacing the floor, because none of the cubs had returned and it was getting dark outside. Peppermint was so worried about her kids, that she headed for downtown Hendersonville to track down her bunch. She looked high and low for her cubs and has not been able to find them. Peppermint needs your help! Join the search party by becoming a junior ranger in locating Peppermint’s cubs, so they are home by Christmas.
