Enjoy an enchanting corner of this world... You’re in the heart of the Blue Ridge National Heritage Area, a place unlike any other on earth, named by Congress as one of the nation’s heritage treasures. The unsurpassed scenic beauty of Western North Carolina enchant the eye — the Cherokee called it the “land of the blue mist.” Here you’ll find an abundance of art, crafts, antiques, shopping, outdoor adventures, attractions and festivals — something for everyone and every age. Come and enjoy mountain hospitality all four seasons of the year.

Check out the other brochures in our Trail Series. Information for securing your own Quilt Block for the Henderson County Quilt Block Trail as a means of promoting the Outdoor Region of Western NC, its orchards, heritage and friendly people will inspire you to discover the rich traditions through music, events and historic sites.

In 2016, the Western NC Quilt Guild partnered with the Henderson County Tourism Development Commission and www.westernncquilters.org and www.visithendersonvillenc.org to create the Henderson County Quilt Block Trail. This unique project was created to educate and inspire visitors to the Henderson County area throughout the county.

Although our terrain is considered mountainous, it is truly a place of enchantment with all four seasons of the year. Around each curve of your drive, you’ll find something for every palate on your taste buds. Experience the many tasting rooms for great beer, wine, cider and many other items may be available through October. Fresh apples, grown apples and grapes into delicious hard ciders.
